

Audience responses to *As Vidas Que Raramente Notamos

Estar contigo participando do seu trabalho no Passeio Público aquela manhã me trouxe uma experiência profunda da valorização da vida e de tudo que existe ao redor. Neste momento estar ali com vc a observar a vida repleta e os mini mundos foi realmente um presente especial para mim na qual as bandeiras continuam a reverberar as imagens que as lupas trouxeram até nós. Está imersão de contato indicaria os caminhos que estavam prestes a chegar.

Being with you participating in your work at Passeio Público that morning brought me a profound experience of valuing life and everything around it. At this moment being there with you watching the full life and the mini worlds was really a special gift for me in which the flags continue to reverberate the images that the magnifying glasses brought to us. This immersion of contact would indicate the paths that were about to arrive.

I saw this video and remembered you.
I was thinking about your work. And I was thinking about life under our feet.
The trees plotting their lives and gossiping about us.
