

began and from that time to the day of his death was accounted one of the best of citizens, a good neighbor and friend and an honorable man in every particular. [Benton County Democrat 5/26/88]

HOPKINS, daughter - Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Hopkins of Pea Ridge were greatly shocked on Wednesday by the appearance of a party of friends bearing between them a casket in which was the remains of their lovely daughter, aged about twenty years, and who had been spending the past winter with a married sister in Wyoming Territory. The bereaved parents had no intimation of her death, telegrams sent failing to reach them. They are among Benton County's most prominent citizens and will have wide spread sympathy with their loss. [Benton County Democrat 3/24/88]

HORSLEY, S.S. - Mrs. S.S. Horsley reached Rogers on Thursday with the remains of her husband who died at Dayton, Washington Territory, after a trip much delayed by storms. [Benton County Democrat 1/28/88]

HORTON, Mrs. - Mrs. Horton of Nebo and mother of Mrs. H.S. Mundell of Rogers, died at her home on the 15th inst. in the 85th year of her age. [Benton County Democrat 1/28/88]

HORWITZ, mother - Mr. R. Horwitz received the sad news Thursday of the death, on the 14th of January of his mother at her home in Mandok, Hungary. This news falls with peculiar force upon Mr. Horwitz. He had not heard of her illness and had not seen her since 1874. His many friends hereabout will offer condolences. [Benton County Democrat 2/11/88]

HUBBARD, W.C. - {from Springtown} Died Wednesday after a short illness, Mr. W.C. Hubbard, age 65 years. Was buried at Flint church with Masonic honors the next day. [Benton County Democrat 11/10/88]

HUSTON, J.H. - News reached here this week of the death of J.H. Huston at McComb, Ill. last Monday. He was for some time a resident of this city and was in the meat business but his health began to fail him and he returned to his old Illinois home to die of quick consumption. His friends here regret to hear this sad news. [Benton County Democrat 11/10/88]

JACKSON, Frank P. - In Memoriam: The subject of this memoir, Frank P. Jackson, was born three miles west of Bentonville on the 16th day of September 1852. Died at his residence in this city at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, April 13th, 1888. Mr. Jackson was left an orphan at an early age and was taken charge of by W.H. Farmer with whom he lived until he obtained his majority. He was married to Louvenia O. Bunch in 1873; of this union three children were born. [Benton County Democrat 4/21/88]

JOHNSON, P.R. - Died, on Monday night the 17th inst., Mr. P.R. Johnson, recently of Washington county, of abscess. Mr. Johnson but recently bought a good farm in Benton county at Dickson's Mill. He had been traveling in the interest of the Davis Nursery for several years and was one of the most successful salesmen on the road and was noted for his honesty and integrity. [Benton County Democrat 9/22/88]

KNOTT, Beulah - The little child of Mr. John Knott, notice of whose